The image shows the reverse side of a Hungarian postage stamp from the 1883 Budapest exhibition. The central feature is a diagonal band with the text "Közreműködő Erem" (Participating Medal) and "Budapest 1883". This band is flanked by two circular medallions, each containing a profile portrait of a man. The text "Közreműködő Erem" is repeated in a circular pattern around the medallions. The stamp is framed by a decorative border with the text "Közreműködő Erem" and "Budapest 1883" repeated. The stamp is labeled "Közreműködő Erem" and "Budapest 1883".
